INSTRUCTIONS

1. Sketch the shapes onto the face and body of the fox -- eyes, stomach, tail and legs.
2. Use a medium round brush to fill in the eye-mask, chest, and tip of the tail with 2-3 coats of Cotton Tail.
3. Use a medium round or fan brush to fill in the rest of the body with 2-3 coats of Melon-Choly.
4. When dry, use a liner brush to put a thick outline of 3 coats of Orange-A-Peel around the eye-mask, chest, and tail.
5. Use a liner brush to add Orange-A-Peel dashes around the body of the planter.
6. Use a liner brush to fill in the center of the ears with 3 coats of Orange-A-Peel.
7. Use a liner brush to paint eye circles on the eye-mask with 2-3 coats of Dandelion. Add a fluff (a wavy line) of Dandelion on the chest.
8. Use a pencil to stetch toes on the feet of the planter. Use the liner brush to paint the legs with 2-3 coats of Tuxedo, avoiding the toes.
9. Use a liner brush to paint the toes with 3 coats of Cotton Tail, once the Tuxedo is dry.
10. Use a liner brush to paint Tuxedo pupils, tips of the ears, mouth, and a stripe on the tail.
11. Dip a tip of the Dotting Gyre into Cotton Tail and add a glint in each eye.
12. Let dry. Clear glaze. Fire to cone 06.
