INSTRUCTIONS

1. Use a large round brush to paint 1-2 swishy coats of Rawhide on the outside and halfway down the inside of the vase. Let dry.
2. Lightly sketch a grid on top of the Rawhide with the pencil. Use a liner brush to apply 2 coats of My Blue Heaven over the grid. Let dry.
3. When the grid is dry, lightly sketch a vase and a stalk of leaves. Use a small round brush to fill in the vase with 1 swishy coat of Dandelion.
4. Fill in the leaves, stalk, and outline the vase using a liner brush loaded with Tu Tu Tango. Let dry.
5. When the leaves are dry, use a liner brush dipped in The Blues to add veins to the leaves. It's okay if the veins are bigger than the leaf. It makes it quirky!
6. Use the medium square brush dipped in The Blues to add stripes along the rim of the vase.
7. Clear glaze and fire to cone 06.
